In the instant case the coating could be applied by a means of spraying. Additionally, the same product could be used as raincoat or awning fabric.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, different search and recognized divergent subject matter the restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. A telephone call was made to Mr. Eric Gaum on 08/12/03 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
